Wife should be like this) is a Bollywood film from 1988, directed and written by J.K. Bihari with Rekha, Farooq Sheikh and Bindu starring. The music was won by the duo Laxmikant-Pyarelal. The film was salman Khan and Renu Arya's screen debut. Summary Story is a family drama that revolves around a lead couple, played by Rekha and Farooq Shaikh, who play a married couple. It's about how Shalu's character overcomes all the obstacles in her married life to gain acceptance from her dominant mother-in---first Kamli (Bindu). Plot Bhandaris is a wealthy family from the upper class. The household is fiercely dominated by Kamla (Bindu), who is the matriarch of the Bhandari family. She takes care of the family business while her stay-at-home husband Kailash (Kader Khan) is gharjamai. Kamla wants her eldest son Suraj (Farooq Shaikh) to marry a girl whose social status suits them. However, against her will, Suraj follows her heart and marries not so rich but talented village belle Shalu (Rekha), which annoys Kamla endlessly. Along with her comical but scheming secretary (Asrani), Kamla vows to throw her out of the house with their clever and cunning tactics used against her. Meanwhile, Shalu tries to be a devout daughter-in-law, trying to win Kamli's heart. He has the full support and understanding of his father-in-law, Kailash, who treats her like a daughter, and her younger brother-in-law Vikram a.k.a. Vicky (Salman Khan), who sometimes can't stand the atrocities his sister-in-law has faced and loudly protests against his tyrannical mother. After endless attempts at humiliation and personal attacks, Shalu strikes back in her style, and her true identity is revealed towards the climax. She shocks everyone with her diction and articulate speech in stark contrast to her raw village belle identity. Her father Ashok Mehra (a friend of the Bhandaris family) reveals her true identity. Kamla learns that Shalu is The Oxford-educated daughter of Mehra, who, in conversation with her in-law Kailash, has made her way to the family to teach her a lesson in humility and Kailash gets vocal vocals Kamla for the first time. Kamla is aware of her mistake and regrets her behavior towards her family when everyone decides to leave her and the house. Kamla sincerely apologizes to everyone and luck finally enters Bhandari's house. Cast Farooq Shaikh as Suraj Bhandari Rekha as Shalu Mehra / Shalu S.
